7th-12th Laker School News

1/22/2021

High School Student of the Week

Eli Fritz is the son of Mark and Heather Fritz. Mr. Russell says, "Eli is a steady, calm, and pensive guy that does what needs to be done and from whom you hardly ever hear a complaint - except if the fish aren't biting!" Eli is an active member of Shell Lake's FFA.

He is a quiet worker in class and takes pride in his work. One staff member commented, "Eli is a joy to have in class. He is kind, respectful and always willing to help me or his classmates." Way to show the Laker spirit, Eli!

Middle School Student of the Week

Chance Kidder 8th grader Chance Kidder. Chance is the son of Jared and Em Kidder. "Chance is a hard working student with a wonderful quick wit." said his science teacher. Mrs. Keven said this about him, "Chance is a very responsible and kind student, getting work done and asking questions to make sure he understands new concepts." His other teachers agree, he is a hard worker, polite to his peers and his teachers. Mrs. Granzin highlighted how dependable Chance is and that he participates in gym class without complaint. Way to show the Laker spirit, Chance!

Spanish Club News

Shell Lake's Spanish Club held a Spanish birthday party on Thursday, January 14th. Spanish Club members learned about birthday traditions in Hispanic culture and then held a FIESTA with those traditions!
