Important Message from School Nutrition:

Attention Parents/Guardians. Starting in February, we will be adding an entree option during lunch. This is going to be for in-person learners. We are bringing back the PB&J Pack as a daily option for students to choose from at lunch. Any purchases such as a milk or an extra entree (7-12 only) is a charge to the student's account. Per our District's policy, a student must have money in their family account to be served.

For those who have students in 7-12th grade, please discuss with your student and be sure to have a positive balance in your account for any extra lunch entree items that your student may desire. Please keep in mind that meals will continue to remain free of charge through the end of this school year.

We are here to serve you and your students. Please call or email your Food Service Director, Joshua Schmidt, if there are any questions or comments regarding this. We appreciate all of you and your dedication to your students' success.

High School Student of the Week

Olivia Imrick 10th grader is the daughter of Tim & Bridget Imrick. Olivia adds her voice to the harmonies of Shell Lake's acapella group, Tonal Recall. She is quiet and courteous in class. She stays focused and on task. She is a dedicated student who takes pride in her academics. She is kind and respectful to staff and peers. Mr. Russell says, "Olivia is a conscientious student and is very community-minded! She offers to help in the classroom which is wonderful for teachers since there is always more to do than we have time for!" Ms. Everson added, "Olivia is always kind, respectful, and thoughtful!" Olivia is a wonderful example of the Laker Spirit!

Middle School Student of the Week

Cole Miller 8th grader is the son of Erin Miller. A character trait of Cole's that really stands out is how inquisitive of a student he is. His science teacher noted, "He thinks deeply about the topic and formulates unique questions about the subject at hand." Mrs. Olsen said this about having him in class, "Cole is a hard worker that is always wanting to know more. He is willing to ask questions, but also question the information that he's being given and where it came from. He has an incredible mind and critical thinking skills. He also has a good sense of humor, but needs to work on time and place, as a typical 8th grader does." Ms. Schunck added, "I appreciate his hard work, he always completes assignments meeting high expectations." Your next level thinking improves the learning of those around you, Cole! Way to show the Laker spirit!
