3rd and 4th Grade Idita-READ Challenge

The 3rd and 4th graders had the opportunity to have local musher, Ruth King, present her dog team last week. They have been following the Iditarod dog sled race in Alaska as well as competing in their own Idita-READ challenge. She brought 3 of her sled dogs, her equipment, and gear. What a great experience for the Shell Lake students!

Students of the Week

Chloe Zebro, Our High School

Laker of the Week is Sophomore Chloe Zebro. Chloe is the daughter of David and Gretchen Zebro. Mrs. Ritchey, her Family and Consumer Education teacher said, "Chloe's maturity and solid character makes her a great role model for other students. Plus, she has great work ethic-maintaining excellent grades while spending many weekends away playing at fastpitch softball tournaments. Add in her fun personality and you have a person very deserving of Laker of the Week!" Mr. Russell, a native New Yorker, shared, "I find Chloe to be a positive and conscientious student who asks questions and engages in learning with other students to seek understanding. I can't comment officially on her baseball fan status, but, she has the caliber of being a Yankees fan." Ms. Everson said, "Chloe is a hard-working, responsible, student who is friendly and sincere." I think we can all agree with Mr. Schäfer, "When Chloe comes to class, she brightens the entire room. I've always appreciated her positive attitude." Way to show the Laker Spirit, Chloe

Sara Brunberg,

Our Middle School Laker of the Week is 8th grader Sara Brunberg. Sara is the daughter of Brock and Kris Brunberg. Ms. Schunck says, "Sara is always full of smiles, helpful and kind. She works diligently at her school work and is respectful to teachers and her peers." Her science teacher commented, "Sara is studious and tries her best each week. She has a kind heart, and is quick to help others in need." Mr. Grease, Sara's Math teacher added, "Sara is a joy to have in class. She is always polite and respectful. She participates in class and leads by example for her classmates with her behavior." Besides shining in the classroom Sara is also involved in sports and music. Way to show the Laker Spirit, Sara!
