MARCH

Bike Vessel - 5 pm Monday, March 3 and 1 pm Friday, March 7

We are excited to be screening the movie Bike Vessel! Twenty years after Donnie Seals Sr. went through a medical crisis, he makes a miraculous health recovery after discovering his love for bicycling. Approaching the age at which his father underwent surgery and facing similar health conditions, Director Eric D. Seals proposes an ambitious idea to his father: bike together from St. Louis to Chicago—350 miles in 4 days.

Click and Learn - 11 am - 1pm Thursday March 6 and Thursday March 20

This Digital Navigator program is offered at Shell Lake Public Library in partnership with Northwest Wisconsin Workforce Development Board. This program aims to connect with people and grow technical skills of all levels. Bring your own devices, use the library's public computers, or try one of the laptops available.

Color and Cocoa - 5-6 pm Tuesday, March 11

Hue got this! Daily life can be stressful. Adults can join us for coloring at the library to unwind. The library will provide coloring supplies. Cocoa and tea will be served.

Silent Book Club - 4-5 pm Monday, March 17

Read a book and dying to discuss it? Silent Book Club is for you! Silent Book Club is where you can share the good, bad, and ugly about your recent reads. Whether you read a book once in awhile or daily! Snacks will be provided.

Death Cafe - 3-4:30 pm Thursday, February 20

Death Cafe is a welcoming space where people can meet to have respectful conversations about death and dying. Cake will be served. This is not a grief support group, counseling session, or religion-based program.

Spring Herbs with Lisa - 4-5 pm Tuesday, March 25

We are excited to welcome back Master Herbalist Lisa Kofakis of Silver Creek Apothecary! Lisa will share her favorite springtime herbs and their benefits. Lisa will also discuss easily harvested plants.

ONGOING PROGRAMS

Story Time Tuesdays at 10

Lakeland Family Resource Center and Shell Lake Public Library welcome kids and their caregivers every Tuesday for stories, snack, and craft at the library!

Wee Readers Program

This program is for kids from birth until age 5. Using a paper tracker from the library, track books read. Bring back the tracker for a special gift.

Books and Bread 10:30 am - noon Wednesday, March 26

Books and Bread is a pop-up food distribution at the Spooner Church of Nazarene. No identifying information is asked. Additionally, by the bulletin board outside the library door is a food cart that is restocked the first and third Thursday of the month.
