

Barron County Department of Health and Human Services Presents a

Spring Wellness Spotlight

An informational event on wellness for middle and high school youth, parents and caregivers.

Saturday, April 12th, 2025

10am-1:30pm at the Rice Lake Public Library

Visit with many local organizations who offer wellness resources, support, and education to middle and high school youth, parents and caregivers.

Presentations:

10:30am - Internet Safety and Substance Use with Andy Krahenbuhl, School Resource Officer - Barron County Sheriff's Department

11:30am - Healthy Relationships and Teens with Annelise Hughes-Thompson, Community Outreach and Prevention Education Coordinator - St. Croix Valley Sexual Assault Response Team

12:30pm - Gaming Safety with Stephanie Bohl and Andy Jondreau, School Resource Officers - Rice Lake Police Department

- Free event
- Informative and judgement-free
- Safety and wellness focused
- Snacks
- Drawings and giveaways

All resources and presentations are open to the public, no need to register.

To participate as a community organization please contact Megan at 715-537-6157.