- ✓ Get more involved with your community.
 - ✓ Network with others with similar outdoor hobbies.
 - ✓ Teach others the skills necessary to safely handle firearms.
 - ✓ Connect with local DNR staff.
 - ✓ Promote the tradition of hunting in Wisconsin.
- Hunter Education Instructors are valuable members of their communities – they're sought out by those looking to better understand firearms or those looking to start hunting but wouldn't know how to otherwise!

- Classes in your region are in great demand. Our current instructors don't have enough hands and cannot be in enough places to meet the dire need for classes.
- Start your own group to teach Hunter Safety. Our staff will help you and your group train, will provide the class materials and will serve as a resource for you as you begin to teach your courses.
- Schoolteachers and public servants, you're in a unique position to provide your community with a necessary, in-demand service. Teach Hunter Education as part of an outdoor skills course and gain valuable facetime with the members of the community you serve.
